

Breakthroughs Small Group Discussion Questions

Lesson 10 – Forgiving Others

Leader's Note: This may be a very hard lesson for people who have been deeply wounded or have experienced abuse in their background. Encourage them that forgiveness is a process and healing is a process.

1. In your own words, how would you define forgiveness?
2. Why is it so hard to forgive people who have hurt us?
3. What are some of the lies the enemy tells you about forgiving someone who has hurt you?
4. Last week's lesson was about God forgiving us. Why do you think it is important for us accept God's forgiveness as we try to forgive those who hurt us?
5. Is it more difficult for you to accept God's forgiveness or for you to forgive others? Why do you think it is more difficult?
6. If you are comfortable sharing, who is the person/persons you need to forgive so that you can experience healing and freedom?

Prayer: Pray for the men/women in your group and ask God to help them heal and forgive those who have hurt them.