What is "Family Ministry?"

An intentional partnership between church and home designed to teach kids, equip parents, and develop leaders, in order to impact generations, one home at a time.

Biblical Basis for Family Ministry

Biblical Basis for Family Ministry for Parents

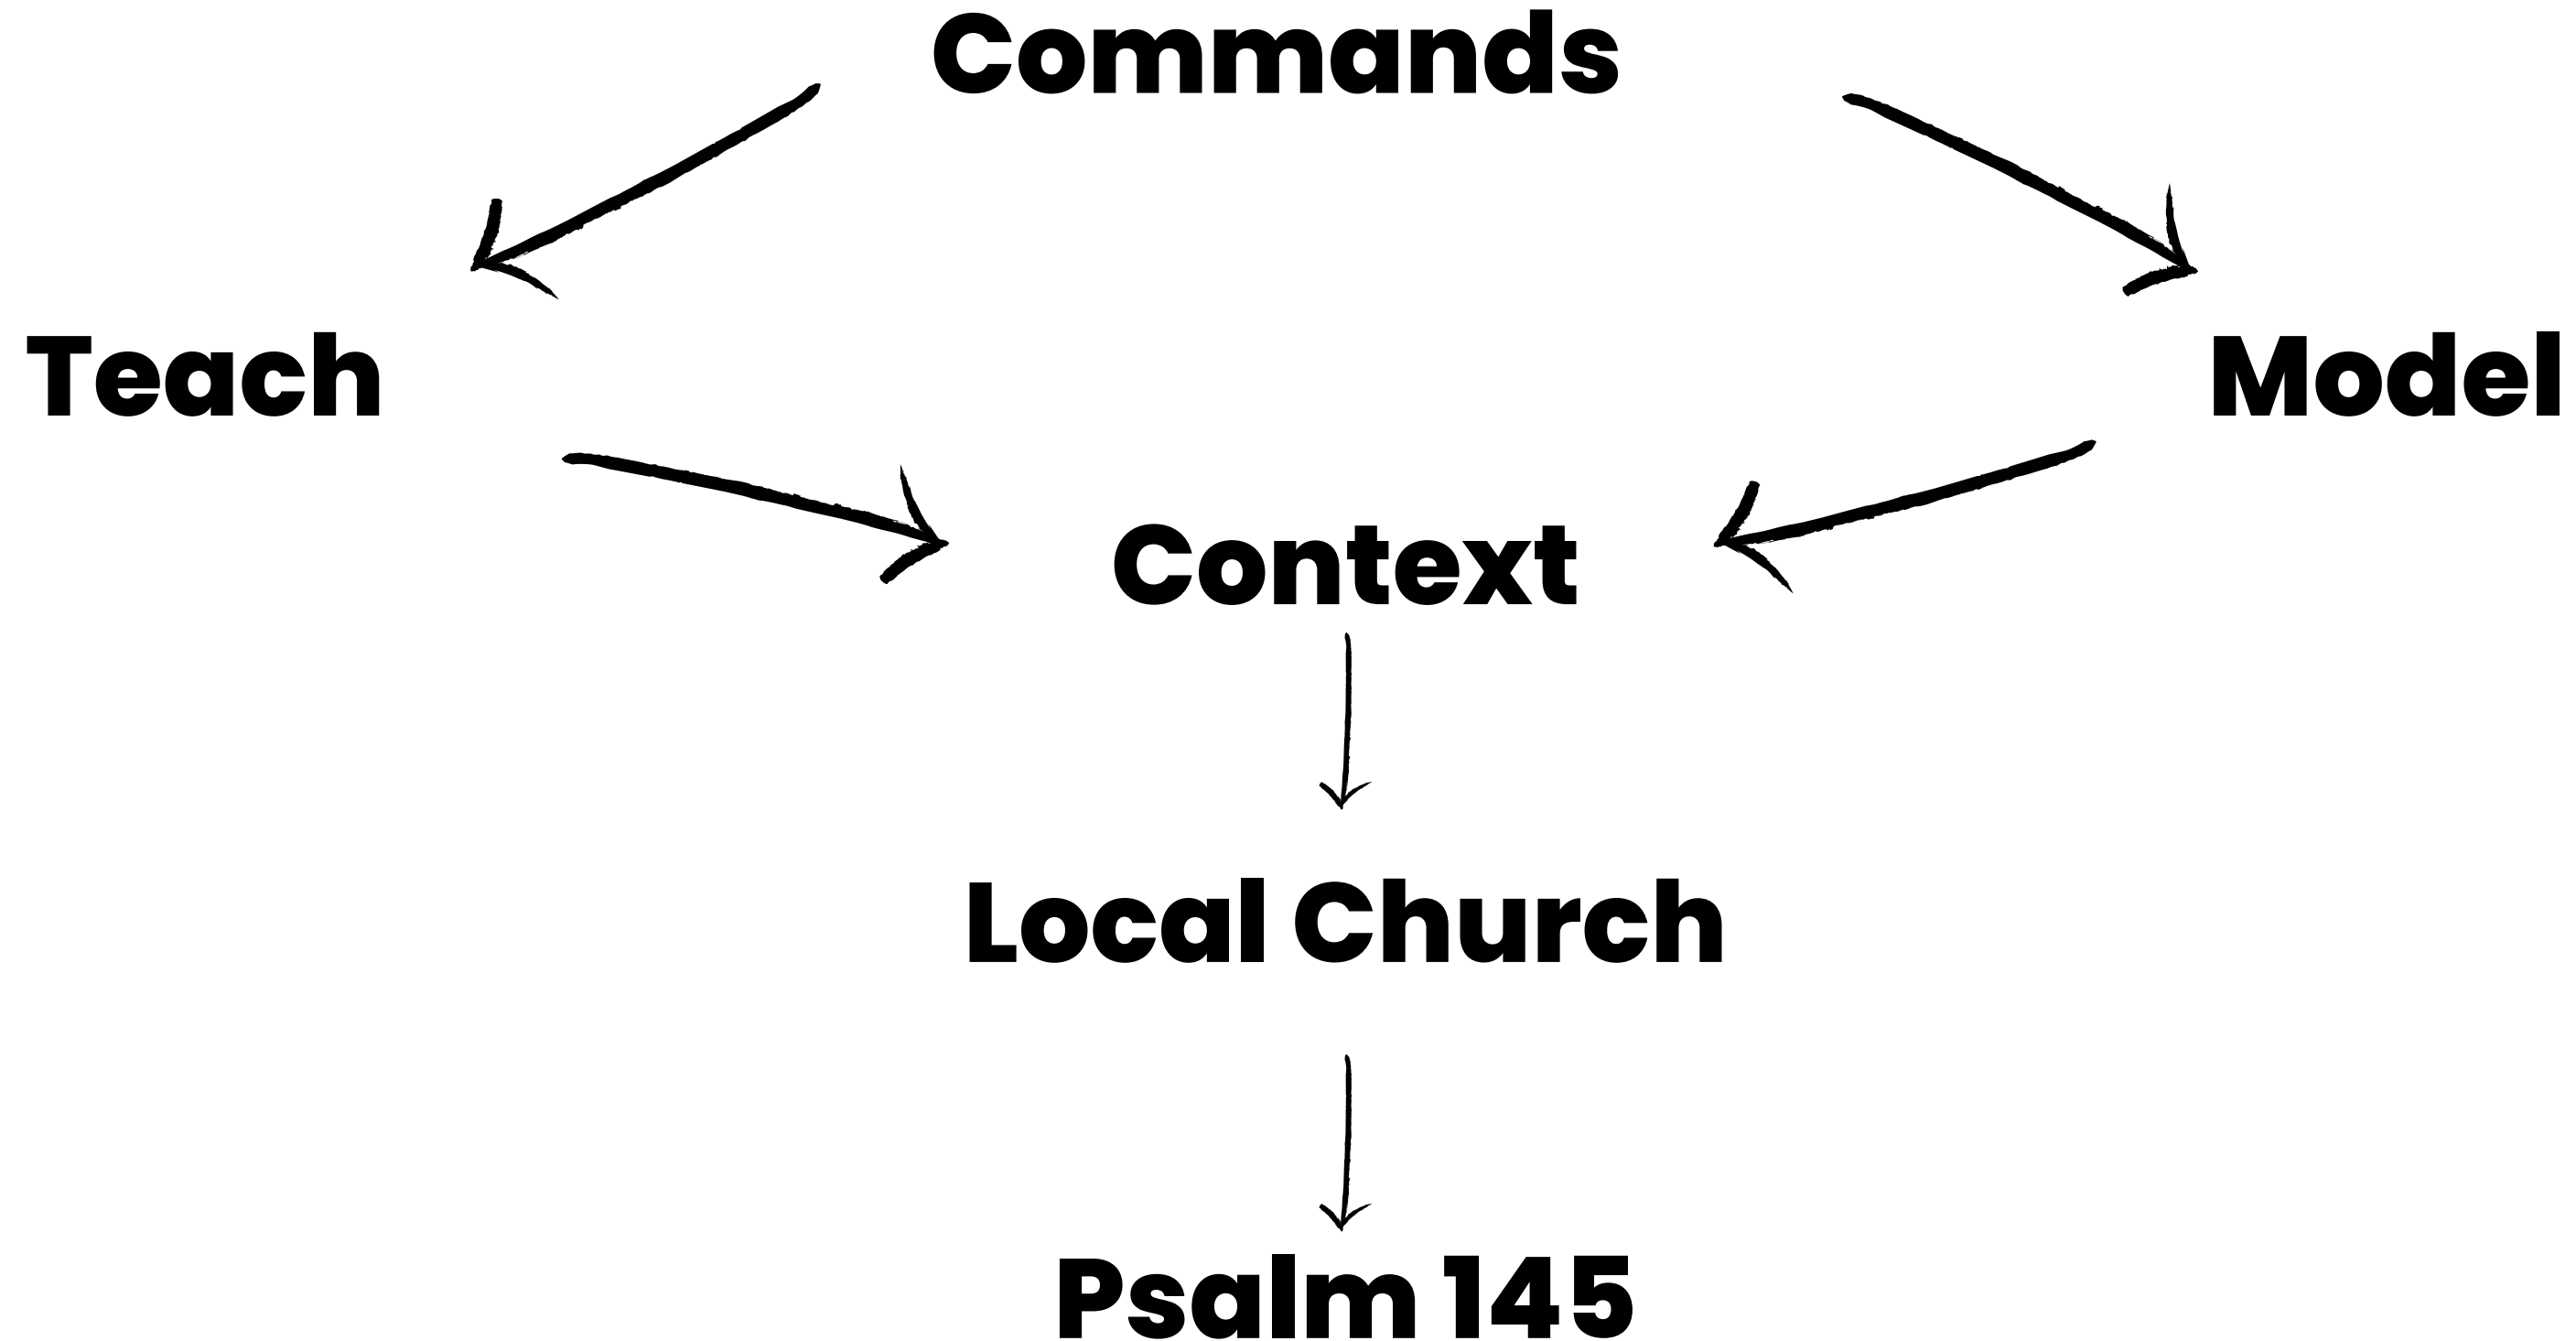

Deut 6: 5–9: Role of the Parent is described

Command: “Listen, Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. These words that I am giving you today are to be in your heart. Repeat them to your children”

Description: “Talk about them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Bind them as a sign on your hand and let them be a symbol on your forehead. Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your city gates.”

FAMILY
MINISTRY
MODELS

Family Ministry Models

Integrated Ministries Model (Parent Focused)

Pro's

- Kids and parents are always experiencing same environment and same content making it easier for "one conversation" at home.

Con's

- Kids lack content that is created for them and communicated in a way that they can learn on their level.
- Partnership with church is environmental instead of training and equipping.

Family Ministry Models

Pro's

- Efforts may generate excitement and attendance.
- Allows for individual creativity in ministries.

Con's

- Danger of church becoming "primary discipling" vehicle.
- Lack of strategy or partnership between ministries.
- Creates competition between ministries.
- Destroys sense of team among ministries.

Isolated
Efforts
Model
(Special Ministry Focused)

Pro's

- Promotes partnerships of church and home AND partnership of individual ministries.
- Allows for church staff to work towards same goal

Con's

- Difficult to Implement and sustain.
- Needs "buy In" from leadership, staff, families, and volunteers
